

constanza ROEDER

Speaker - Consultant - Arts in Health Professional

Biography

Constanza Roeder equips leaders and teams to transform the health and well-being of their communities through the arts. Her experience as a therapeutic foster parent, leukemia survivor, Arts in Health Professional, and nonprofit founder gives her unique insight into the application of the arts in caregiving and systems design.

She founded the award-winning, nationally recognized nonprofit Hearts Need Art: Creative Support for Patients and Caregivers, and now consults with corporations, nonprofits, and hospitals to create a world where the arts are fully utilized to promote belonging, wellness, and human flourishing.

Constanza received the 2018 Graceann Durr Humanitarian Award and was selected as one of the Top 100 Healthcare Visionaries by the International Forum on Advancements in Healthcare for 2021. Her work has been featured in various publications and she has guest lectured at medical schools,
